Abbotsford, British Columbia The City In The Country

Situated in the lush "Mighty Fraser" valley just 50 minutes east of Vancouver, Abbotsford is a jewel location for meeting planners, offering great urban amenities with a warm country welcome in a beautiful natural setting that is easily accessible by road or by air.

The Abbotsford Airport, only minutes from all attractions and services, has connecting and non-stop flights to most major destinations in Canada and the US. It is located next to Tradex, a 120,000 square foot trade and exhibition facility. Abbotsford offers a wide range of top quality attractions, priced-right accommodations and meeting facilities with exceptionally friendly service to make meetings from small to large a unique and enjoyable experience.

Abbotsford is also the air and road gateway to all the world class experiences that are available throughout the Mighty Fraser Country. Downhill skiing, white water rafting, sturgeon fishing, hot-springs, camping, mountain-top hiking, theme parks, scenic gardens, truly this part of the world is like no other. Shopping from boutiques to box stores and diverse dining options are also on the agenda. Welcome to our playground, feel free to set your own limits.
